

Elite Conference 2011

Monday, November 21, 2011

SAVE THE DATE!

Calling all Juniors or Seniors interested in Teaching Agriculture!

A conference designed just for You to help plan Your future in agricultural education!

The Elite Conference agenda will include the following activities and presentations:

- University and Community College Representative Time – ISU, SIUC, UIUC, WIU and many community colleges throughout the state. This is a great time to get all of your questions answered about entrance requirements, expenses, coursework and program expectations.

- Presentations - From Illinois Ag In the Classroom, Illinois PAS, just to name a few.
- Teacher Panel – agriculture teachers come in many styles, genders, personalities and ages.
- “Teaching” time, break into groups to do teaching activities and share your experiences. GREAT door prizes will be awarded at the end of the day – MUST be present to win.
- Lunch, snacks and breaks are provided.
- The Elite Conference will be hands-on, packed with activities and is designed to get you off the right start in your future in agricultural education!

When: Monday, November 21, 2011 - 10:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m.

Where: IAA Building, Illinois Farm Bureau Headquarters - Bloomington, IL

Why: We need You!

Conference Requirements:

- A great enthusiasm for agricultural education!
- Official FFA Dress or the equivalent attire
- Do not have to be an FFA member to attend

Questions??

Call Mindy Bunselmeyer at 217-412-5646 or email: mbunselmeyer@agriculturaleducation.org

Inspiring Minds to Grow  TeachAG.net